Be Careful in Using

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified coccanut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats the most expensive soaps or anybeats the most expensive soaps or any-thing else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanes thordries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh locking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and akes out every particle of dust, dirt and landruff.—Advt.

A Message to Mothers who are Weak, Anaemic, Nervous, Run-down

NLY a mother knows how hard, sometimes, is the burden she has to bear. Day by day, patiently and cheerfully, she shoulders the manifold responsibilities of the home-often neglecting herself in the effort to care for the welfare of others. And although she hides her own cares and anxieties behind a smiling face, there comes a time when her health gets undermined, her vitality diminishes, her cheerful face becomes careworn; -she feels she cannot go on any longer.

It is in cases like this that Wincarnis exercises such a wonderful effect.

Wincarnis promotes new strength, new blood, new nerve force, and new vitality because it is a tonic, a restorative, a blood builder and a nerve food, all in one. That is why over 10,000 doctors recommend it.

Wincarnis contains no drugs. Its formula is not concealed. It is an unvarying combination of beeffrom prize cattle of English breed. malt from choice ripe grains, and a specially selected wine possessing unusual tonic properties. These three ingredients are combined by a scientific process which greatly enhances their individual health-giving qualities.

Wincarnis has been famous in Europe for a third of a century. Thousands have testified that it has restored them to health and strength. Don't confuse it with the many inferior preparations of apparently similar nature but cheaper price; buy Wincarnis itself, the tonic that has been unsuccessfully imitated for 33 years.
